The screenshot shows the National Library of Ireland's 'Sources' page. At the top, there are navigation links: ABOUT, BROWSE, HELP & TOOLS, FEEDBACK, and GAEILGE. The main heading is 'SOURCES' with a search bar and a 'FIND' button. Below the search bar, there are links for 'Back to Search Results', 'EMAIL THIS', and 'BOOKMARK'. The main content area displays the title 'Pedigree of Pugh of Shraheen and Lissadrone, Co. Mayo, c.1687 -- 1832.' and indicates the format is 'Manuscript'. It lists subjects: 'Pugh, family of', 'Irish Abroad > U.S.A.', 'Lissadrone > County Mayo', 'Shraheen > County Mayo', and 'Ireland > Connacht > Mayo'. There are 'Get this' and 'MARC' buttons. A 'Location' box specifies 'Dublin: National Library of Ireland, Genealogical Office: Ms.169, pp.306-7'. On the right, a 'Similar Items' section lists three related works: 'Comparative dictionary of Irish and Welsh' by Owen Pugh, 'Organochlorine pesticides' by Pugh, M., 'Review of Elegies for the dead in Cyrenaica, by H. Henderson, and of Poems, by R. Pugh.' by S., T., 'The microflora associated with Halimione Portulacoides. I. The establishment of the root surface flora of nature plants. II. Root surface ...' by Dickinson, C. H., and 'Studies on fungi in coastal soils VI. Gliocladium Roseum Bainier.' by Pugh, G. J. F.

There is a record of Robert Pue 1798 1798 Claimants and Surrenders Transcription asking for compensation for "House, Cattle, Furniture, Cloaths, Cash". In 1832 records were found where Arthur was seeking payment of the remainder of the compensation due to Robert Pugh following losses of cattle and goods during the rebellion of 1798. This was for land in Sligo.

There is a document at the National Library of Ireland called the Pedigree of Shraheen and Lissadrone, County Mayo, 1687-1832. I sent for it and entered in Ancestry.

From Wales to Mayo:

Starts with Henry Pugh from Montgomeryshire, Wales, married to Susanna Studley. Settled in Ireland in 1687 and seated at Shraheen. Henry was buried at Foxford. They had a son Arthur¹, who married Anne Frame, family in Sligo. Arthur and Anne had had four sons; Robert, Michael (MD who immigrated to the US), John and William, died unmarried. Arthur died at the age of 70.

From Mayo to Donegal:

Robert Pue married Hannah Gardiner from Tonorow, Mayo, who died in 1771 at the age of 22. Apparently they did not have any children. After that he married Jane Elizabeth Parks. (Jane Elizabeth Park's father resided in Drumenan, Donegal).

There were actually 3 women in this family named Jane Elizabeth Pugh:

Robert's wife (Jane Elizabeth- maiden name Parks 1752-1836), Robert's daughter Jane Elizabeth 1780-1857 (married Nathaniel Stewart in 1812)

Arthur Esq.'s daughter Jane Elizabeth b 1834-1902.

Miss Jane E Pugh of Sligo has land in Ballynahaglish in 1824. I suspect it is Robert's widow and she is living in Sligo.

Feb 10, 1784 Married Mr. Pue of County Mayo to Miss Park near St Johnston (Londonderry Journal)

Robert and Jane had three children

1. Jane Elizabeth Pugh (1780-1857), married Nathaniel Stewart Esq. in 1812 at St. Columbs in Derry. ***
2. Arthur Archibald Pugh Esq. * (1784-1845), married Martha Custance, whose father was an Esq. in Bruge, Netherlands
3. Anne Pugh (1786-1832), buried in the Lacken Cemetery, with her mother, apparently RC.

So far most of the family appears to be Protestant.

Robert appears to be buried in Killala, COI. Pedigree of Shraheen and Lissadrone, County Mayo, 1687-1832 have Robert and Jane Elizabeth buried in Taughboyne, Co Donegal, but Rootsireland has them buried separately.

Jane Elizabeth Pugh and Nathaniel Stewart had three children.

George Robert Stewart (1815-1867)

Jane Elizabeth Stewart

Arthur Pugh Stewart.

Arthur was listed on some of the documents after his Grandfather died.

The Stewarts lived in Donegal.

 There are other Pews/Pues that went to St Columbs that may be related.

Back to Mayo County:

Arthur Archibald Pugh Esquire, of Lissadrone and Martha Custance had two daughters, Emma (1834-1844) and Jane Elizabeth (1836-1902). Arthur died in 1845, leaving his land to his only daughter Jane Pugh, who married Jonathan Rashleigh. Arthur was married in England, his daughter married and lived in England.

*"Esquire" was historically was a title of respect accorded to men of higher social rank, particularly members of the landed gentry. He had a home in Smithstown but also lived in Dublin on Fitzwilliam Square, where he died.

Locations of Pugh land.

Title Applotment Books - 1824. Miss Jane Pugh* has to be Robert's wife. Arthur's daughter was not born yet. There was another Jane born 1808, daughter of John and Jane Shannon, who lived in Crossmolina Parish- but Jane Elizabeth 1834-1902 has Ballynahaglish in Griffiths.

"Jane Elizabeth Pugh (assuming this is the daughter) had about 300 tenant farmers and she had land in Cloonmeen, and Kilgariff in the Parish of Kilbeagh. Her lessors included George and Arthur Pugh, Clossaghroe, Parish of Ballynahaglish and Arthur Pugh, Derrynagran, Parish of Ballynahaglish" Mary from the Meath mailing groups.

The highlighted Pughs are related to Steven Newman.

At the time of Griffith's Valuation, the Pugh family held lands in the parishes of Annagh, Kilcolman and Kilbeagh, barony of Costello, and in the parishes of Lackan and Ballynahaglish, barony of Tirawley, county Mayo.

In 1869, Jane Elizabeth Pugh, only daughter and heir of Arthur Pugh of Lissadrone, married Jonathon Rashleigh of Menabilly, Cornwall and Lissadrone passed into the possession of the Rashleigh family. <https://landedestates.ie/estate/887>
